Peerless-AV® to Exhibit at Almo Professional A/V's “Fully Charged” E4 AV Tour In New York Metro Area On Oct. 8

Peerless-AV to Showcase Mounts, Digital Signage, and AV Solutions

CHICAGO — October 8, 2015 — Peerless-AV, has teamed with Almo Professional A/V to give resellers, integrators and consultants the opportunity to charge up their businesses this fall at the award-winning E4 AV Tour, which is stopping in the New York Metro area on October 8. Peerless-AV will showcase a variety of solutions ideal for corporate settings, including the new Portrait Kiosk Enclosures, Desktop Monitor Arm Mount, Pico AV Broadcaster, SmartMount® Full-Service Video Wall Mount with Quick Release, SmartMount® Full Featured Flat Panel TV Cart, and UV2™ Outdoor TVs during these events.

Now in its sixth year, the E4 tour has traveled to cities around the country to provide product, technical and business training needs to thousands of resellers and installers while creating the ideal forum for professional networking. Named the best Training, Consulting/Business Service two years in a row, the E4 program fuels up AV professionals by offering a full day of educational sessions worth InfoComm Renewal Units as well as exclusive access to the newest high energy AV products and services.

“Almo Professional A/V’s E4 AV Tour is a great opportunity to meet with Almo customers and showcase our new solutions,” said Nick Belcore, Executive Vice President, Peerless-AV. “We are excited to close out the last stop on the 2015 E4 Tour with some of our best products.”

“The Peerless-AV team always brings their latest and greatest products on the tour, along with seasoned pros who spend time with our E4 attendees to determine the best possible mounts, kiosks or display systems for their AV applications,” said Melody Craigmyle, vice president of marketing for Almo Professional A/V.

Peerless-AV offers a wide range of digital signage and AV solutions that “Get it Right” for corporate applications such as versatile mounts to create eye-catching video walls and TV carts that are safe, aesthetically pleasing, and cost effective via the company’s line of SmartMount® carts and mounts. For companies looking to create a more interactive environment, Peerless-AV offers its Kiosk Enclosures and UV2™ Outdoor TVs. To transmit the content to these solutions, Peerless-AV features its Pico AV Broadcaster, a convenient, flexible and powerful media distribution system able to broadcast HD content to an unlimited number of DTVs with an ATSC tuner.
