

Peerless-AV Celebrates 50th Anniversary of the Company's First Mount AV Solutions Manufacturer Thanks Customers and Partners For Support Over the Years

Aurora, IL, April 1, 2014: Peerless-AV, a leader in TV and digital signage wall mounts, is proud to announce the 50th anniversary of the company's first wall mount, the Model 1100.

Designed for various applications, including hospitality, restaurants and bars, and home entertainment, the Model 1100 supported 17" and 19" TV sets weighing up to 60 lbs. It also featured a swivel bracket with the ability to turn 40 degrees.

"Reaching this milestone is an important moment for us at Peerless-AV and we are happy to celebrate this anniversary with our customers and partners in the AV space," said John Potts, President, Peerless-AV. "We are thankful for the opportunity to continue providing solutions to our loyal customer base and we look forward to another 50 years of developing reliable and innovative solutions."

In the 50 years since the launch of the Model 1100 TV mount, Peerless-AV has expanded its operations. While the company continues to develop AV mounts for both commercial and consumer use, the company has added digital signage solutions such as touch-screen kiosks and digital menu boards as well as outdoor TVs to its repertoire of expertise.

Throughout the month of April, Peerless-AV will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of its first wall mount. To see what the company is doing to recognize this milestone, visit www.peerless-av.com, www.facebook.com/PeerlessAV and twitter.com/PeerlessAV.
